

IBMS – Panel Builder

Integrated BMS provide automatic controls and control panels for the building services industry. Integrated BMS have developed the whole process for control panel manufacture to give in-house capabilities and facilities for control panel design, manufacturing & assembly, test and certification. All control panels are custom designed and manufactured to the specifications and requirements of our clients.

Panel Wiring Experience not essential - If you have worked in a shop floor environment and are competent in assembly using hand and power tools, perhaps looking for a new role - please apply.

Job Requirements

- Interpret bespoke control panel drawings and manufactures information to build an electrical control panel from raw components.
- Fabrication of electrical enclosures including drilling and fitting.
- Completed full function panel testing and inspection prior to despatch and delivery.
- Use of laser engraving machine to produce component and door labels.

Key Skills

- Attention to detail
- Problem solving
- Time management & organisational skills
- Work alongside others in a busy workshop environment
- Ability to work to a time deadline
- Working with hand and power tools

If you are interested in joining our team, please email your CV to controls@integratedbms.co.uk